

Dennis Mitchell (be) a 5 1/2 year old boy. He (live) with his parents, Henry and Alice Mitchell, in Wichita, Kansas, in the USA. He (not have) any brothers or sisters, but he (have) a dog, Ruff, who is his best friend. Dennis (wear, usually) a blue-and-black striped shirt, tennis shoes and red overalls.

Dennis is young, full of energy, enthusiastic and very curious. He (say, always) what he thinks, which people (hate, often) him. He (try, usually) to help others but he also (play, sometimes) pranks on people. He (get, always) in trouble and (bring) chaos wherever he (go), that's why his nickname is "the Menace".

The Wilsons, George and Martha, (be) his neighbours. They (live) next door to the Mitchell family. Martha (adore) Dennis, but Mr. Wilson (not like) him - or so he (say)! - as he (be, usually) the victim of Dennis's mischief: he (get, often) hurt, or his things (get) destroyed. The boy (love) him, though, and (think) Mr. Wilson is his best adult friend.

- What is going on, Ruff? What is Dennis doing right now?

- Mr. Wilson (sleep). Dennis (bother) him. He (want) to play. He (play) the doctor and he (shine) a torch in Mr. Wilson's eyes and mouth and nose. He (put) his hand on Mr. Wilson's forehead and (think) he is warm. Dennis (decide) that his friend (need) an aspirin. Mr. Wilson is old and he (keep) a lot of medicine on his nightstand. Dennis (try) to open the aspirin bottle. Oh, no! All the pills (fall) on the floor! Dennis (believe) it is okay to give one to Mr. Wilson anyway. He (try) to put a pill in the old man's mouth but Mr. Wilson (not open) it. Dennis (have) an idea. What (he/do)? He (climb) on Mr. Wilson. And he (take) a slingshot out of his pocket. He (aim) and... he (shoot) a pill right into Mr. Wilson's throat! Mr. Wilson (scream) and Dennis (run) away back to his house and me!

other popular media, including TV shows, both live-action and animated, and several movies.

The comic strip became so successful that it was adapted to newspapers, in 48 countries and 19 languages.

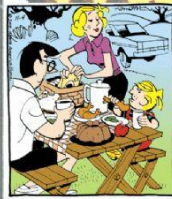

3

Dennis (prank) on people but this time, his mother (trick) him, with the carrots in the cookie jar!

Mr. Wilson (be) gardening. He (work) his garden in the evening. Look! He (water) his plants right now.

Grandpa Johnson (live) with the Mitchells. This week (he) with them for a few days to see his grandson.

Ruff (love) cats. But look! A cat (be) howl!

Dennis and his family (have) a picnic today. They (eat) in their dining room.

Alice Mitchell (cook) spaghetti on Mondays. Today she (cook) chicken with roast potatoes.

Martha Wilson (be) her friend. She (visit) again this afternoon.

Dennis (ride) his bike at the weekends. This morning (he) his skateboard.

Dennis (go) to a barber for his haircut but today his father (cut) his hair.

Mr. Wilson (read) his newspaper in his porch this morning. He (leave) it in the kitchen.

Dennis's teacher (lose) her patience with Dennis. Today she (be) because he isn't naughty.

Dennis's babysitters (be) more than once. Tonight a new babysitter (be).

Henry Mitchell (be) an aerospace engineer. It is the weekend now and he (be) home. He (sit) in his living room, he (drink) some iced tea and he (watch) a game of American football on TV. But Dennis (be) to go to the store to buy batteries.

Dennis (love) Margaret very much. But he (be) she good cookies. He (eat) right now.

"I DON'T THINK PUTTING CARROTS IN THE COOKIE JAR IS VERY FUNNY, BOB!"

"I DON'T MIND 'CHOPPED' ONCE MORE, I'LL CUT OFF YOUR EAR!"

"CAN WE GO TO THE STORE? MY BATTERIES ARE DEAD. CAN YOU GO? JUST TALK WITH MR. TIL. MOMMY'S HOME."