Part 2: Indicate whether the sentence has a compound subject or a compound predicate. (Indica si la oración tiene un sujeto compuesto o un predicado compuesto.)

1. Jim and Ruth climb rock walls.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

2. Mr. Scott writes and draws on the computer program.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

3. Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse were the creation of Walt Disney.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

4. Apples and oranges are healthy.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

5. John Lennon wrote and performed the song Imagine.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

6. Asians and Hispanics are minorities in the United States.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

7. Flowers and trees can be found in each country.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

8. The students study and do homework.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

9. Every morning, I wake up, take a shower and brush my teeth.

   Compound subject | Compound predicate

10. The principal and the teacher are best friends.

    Compound subject | Compound predicate

LIVEWORKSHEETS LIVEWORKSHEETS