Comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs in medicine.

They are used to compare (comparative: 2 things,places, people, symptoms Superlative: more than 2.)

Exercise:

Use the correct form of comparative or superlative of the following adjectives, and use them according to the sentence:

BEST BETTER WORSE WORST MOST LEAST CHEAP PRECISE

1. This prosthesis is _____ than the previous one, it broke down already.

2. Dr. Mirrahl is far _____ than Dr. Kovak for this procedure, as all his patients recover well.

3. The _____ precise microscope is the Wurlitzer, it's precision level will disappoint anyone.

4. I believe Mary will be discharged soon, as she looks much _____ than yesterday

5. We do not like Dr. Sinhg, as he always uses the _____ material he can find in order to save some costs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS