UNIT #3 – GRAMMAR #1 SECTION

NAME: _

DATE: _

First conditional

If	it	rains,	the students	will stay	inside.
	the volcano	erupts,	we	will leave	our homes.

These two sentences mean the same thing. In sentence 1, notice the comma.
If it rains, the students will stay inside.
The students will stay inside if it rains.

1 Read. Circle the correct answer.

1. If a volcano will erupt / erupts animals(will run/run away.

2. A volcano forms / will form)if magma will push / pushes up the earth's crust.

3. It(will be / is difficult to breathe if gases will blast / blast)into the sky.

4. If lava will touch / touches anything, it will burn / burns

2 Read and write. Complete the sentences.

1. People who live near an active volcano _____*won't be*_____ (be) safe if it erupts.

2. If scientists visit a volcano, they _____ (collect) some ash.

3. If ash fills the air, the sky _____ (be) blue.

4. You _____ (see) a volcano called Mauna Loa if you go to Hawaii.

3 Read and write. Complete the sentences.

1. I will put on a raincoat if it rains _____.

2. If you plant some seeds, you will have some flowers _____.

3. _____ if he sees a crater.

4. Lava will cover the ground _____.

4 Look and write. Write a sentence about each picture. Use if and will.

1. If the dog sees a cat, the dog will run toward it.

2. _____

3. _____

5 Write. Write a sentence about each of the topics. Use if and will in your sentences. Answers will vary.

extreme weather	family	hobbies
school	sports	wild animals

If I visit my grandparents this summer, we will look at old photographs.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____