

ENGLISH WORKSHEET

“Los Jaivas”

The origins of LOS JAIVAS are found in the family nucleus made up of the brothers Eduardo, Claudio and Gabriel Parra, from Viña del Mar. Together with their friends and some high school classmates at the Guillermo Rivera Cotapo High School, Eduardo “Gato” Alquinta and Mario Muris, begin to discover music as a way of expressing their creativity and permanent concern.

This is how, on August 15, 1963, under the name of The High & The Bass, which alluded to the differences in stature between the Parra brothers, Gato Alquinta and Mario. They made the first presentation at the Municipal Theatre Viña del Mar.

I. Read the text again and answer the questions below.

- a) Who were the founders of the group? _____
- b) What was the first name of the group? _____
- c) Why did they decide to name the group like that? _____
- d) Where did they make their first performance? _____

II. Look at the next picture and answer the questions below. Find information on Internet

- What is the meaning of the JAIVAS logo?
