

Unit 3: Quick Review

1. State if these sentences are TRUE or FALSE.

a) The Changing Face of Communication

Television is one-way type of communication: viewers only listen.

The newest media are on the Internet, and they change and grow every day.

The Internet only connects people with information.

Social media allows people to collaborate on projects.

Online content is reliable and updated.

b) Internet Island

Ben and Mark created an online tribe with 26,500 members.

People spent a lot of time posting messages on social-networking websites.

Tui Mali owned a simple island called Vorovoro.

Only 25 people went to the island because of the lack of commodities.

The chief didn't trust newcomers, so he made them pay $53000

2. Where were these ideas taken from? Choose a source

"It will provide us with work for three years"

An email changed his life.

Since viewers can create and share content, everyone can have a voice.

"The Web is us"

Michael Wesch believes that all human relationships depend on communication.

The leaders of the project expect to develop new communities around the globe.
