1. Complete the sentences by adding for, out, off, on, down, in, up, by, to, back.

1. As time goes_____, it becomes easier to forgive and forget.
2. Do you think many people will turn_____?
3. Maybe you think his behavior is OK, but I won't stand_____it.
4. Have you ever thought of taking_____acting?
5. I'll have to stop you there, we've run_____of time.
6. You can't take_____responsibility for the whole event.
7. Don't bother with the computer manual - you'll pick it_____as you go along.
8. He'd always looked up_____his uncle.
9. He offered her a trip to Australia but she turned it_____.
10. I woke the others_____at six.
11. You have to work long hours and that puts_____a lot of people.
12. I have to make some corrections before I give the report_____on Monday.
13. I'm a bit busy - can I ring you_____in a few minutes?
14. He was taken_____as a security guard.
15. How can you look the word_____if you don't know how to spell it?
16. My father was a real authoritarian so we were brought_____very strictly.
17. Hang your coat_____and come on in.
18. He dropped_____of school when he was 16.
19. They've set_____a fund for victims of the earthquake.
20. I can't see him ever settling_____and getting a job.

LIVEWORKSHEETS