Woman: Please leave the building. We need to go upstairs to control the fire. Go ... go ... go out!

Woman: OK. The patient's OK. Let's put her in the ambulance and go to the hospital.

Man: Hey, guys, you can cross the road now.

1 Match the conversations with the pictures.

police officer ☐

paramedic ☐

firefighter ☐

Read the next conversation, later write what each person can do.

Police officer: Hi! My name's Bob and I'm a police officer. I help people in the street. I make sure that everyone can cross the street safely. I can also check that the cars are following the traffic rules.

Paramedic: How's it going? I'm Joanna and I'm a paramedic. In my job, I take people to the hospital so they can get medical care. I can also give the patients medicine.

Firefighter: Hello! I'm Kayla and I'm a firefighter. I put out fires all over the city. We're really quick at it! I can also teach students how to prevent a fire. Stay safe!

2 Write in your notebook the next table

3 Some people of your community can act in bad ways. Write in your notebook what they can do to be better.

 1. She's driving and texting.	 2. He's crossing the street on a red light	 3. They're leaving a campfire near trees.
 4. He's throwing rubbish on the street.	 5. They're drawing on the school desks.	 6. He's saying bad words to a classmate.

Texting in the car is dangerous.

Yes, it's really dangerous. To be better, you can text when you aren't driving.
