

Date:

Topic:

There's no bathtub

There is: affirmative, negative, and yes/no questions

- 1 Would you like to live in a really big house or a really small house. Explain your answer in your notebook.
- 2 Read the next text:

The Smallest House

in the World

This is Jay Shafer and this is house.
It's made of Wood. It's very, very small.
It's the smallest house in the world.

Downstairs there's a living room, a kitchen and a bathroom. Is there a bathtub? No, they is not but there's a shower and a toilet. The kitchen is very small. There's a stove, a refrigerator, a sink, but there's no dishwasher – unfortunately.

There's a small desk in the living room.

There isn't a dining room, but there's a table. It folds up under the desk. There's a front porch, too.

Upstairs there's a small bedroom.

The house is 96 square feet.

That's the size of some people's bathrooms!

The house even has wheels so you can move it around. Pretty cool!

Date:

Topic:

There`s no bathtub

There is: affirmative, negative, and
yes/no questions

- 3 In the article above, write in your notebook the names of the rooms in Jay Shafer`s house.
- Now, write one more thing that is unique in Jay`s house.

It is only 96 square feet.

- 4 Write in your notebook, what two rooms are missing from Jay Shafer`s house?
- 5 Listen and repeat.
Write five elements.

Rooms

- bathroom • bedroom • dining room
- kitchen • living room • porch • garage

Parts of a house

- door • downstairs • floor • upstairs
- wall • window • yard

Fixtures and appliances

- bathtub • dishwasher • refrigerator
- shower • sink • stove • toilet
- washing machine

Date:

Topic:

There's no bathtub

There is: affirmative, negative, and
yes/no questions

6 Write in your notebook.

There is/There isn't (There's no)

Affirmative

There's a bathroom.

Questions

Is there a bathtub?

Negative

There's no bathtub. OR

There isn't a bathtub.

Short answers

Yes, there is./No, there isn't.

Definite article: the

Downstairs there's a dining room and a kitchen.

The kitchen is very small.

7 Complete these sentences about Jay's house.
Use There is, There isn't, or There's no.

1 There's a red door.

2 _____ bathtub.

3 _____ a window upstairs.

4 _____ a porch.

5 _____ garage.

Date:

Topic:

There's no bathtub

There is: affirmative, negative, and
yes/no questions

- 8 Write in your notebook, with the exercise 7, ask yes/no questions.

A: Is there a red door? B: Yes, there is

- 9 Which of these appliances and fixtures are in your kitchen and bathroom? Write sentences in your notebook

There's a ... / There's no ...

1 dishwasher

2 _____

3 _____

4 _____