

6 ★★ ★ Complete the dialogue with who / which / that or – if the pronoun is not necessary.

JANET Greg, you've moved a lot. What are the things ¹_____ you think are important about moving?

GREG Yes, well, I think the thing ²_____ is most important is to be optimistic about the move. Of course there are things ³_____ you'll miss, but think of all the exciting things there will be. New places, new people!

JANET But what about my friends? This is the only place ⁴_____ I've ever lived in!

GREG You can keep in touch with the people ⁵_____ are your most important friends. And you can visit – you're going to live in Ireland, right? Not on the moon!

JANET I know, but you need to take a train and then the ferry, ⁶_____ makes it complicated and expensive. And what if I don't make new friends?

GREG Look, don't worry! You're an outgoing person ⁷_____ makes friends quickly – you'll be OK. But you know, one thing ⁸_____ I like to do before I move is make a scrapbook ⁹_____ will remind me of the place and the people. I put photos, names, birthdays and email addresses in it, ¹⁰_____ helps me to keep in touch with the friends ¹¹_____ I made.

JANET That's a great idea! Thanks, Greg.