

Quiz Unit 8

Complete this phone conversation using a word from the box to fill each gap. You can use a word more than once.

all entire every far many no none nothing

KATE: Ann, it's Kate – I'm phoning about the book.

ANN: Oh hi, Kate. Thanks ever so much. How did you get on?

KATE: Well, I tried that bookshop near my office, and the first person I spoke to was

(1) help at all. She knew (2) at all about art!

But as the (3) place was full of art books I decided to ask someone else – I really didn't believe that (4) of the staff could help.

ANN: What happened?

KATE: Eventually a really nice guy came up and offered to have a look for me. He said that

(5) so often they find a title in the store that isn't on their computer system – and you were in luck!

ANN: Oh wonderful – thank you so much, Kate.

KATE: It was pretty lucky really – he said the book's been out of print for a year and there aren't

(6) left in the shops.

ANN: (7) wonder it was so difficult to find!

Choose the correct words in italics and write them in the box. If both options are correct, write them both.

- 1 I take the 10.40 to Bristol every Friday and it's always half empty.
You'll find / You'll be finding a seat.
- 2 Kelly's sister will / is going to have a baby. It's due next month.
- 3 I'm going away to Austria tomorrow. This time next Tuesday afternoon
I'm going to ski / 'll be skiing down a mountain!
- 4 'You speak very good Mandarin.' 'Thank you. It's not surprising;
I'll have lived / been living in Beijing for eight years next month.'
- 5 The economic forecast is really gloomy. I don't think it will be / think it isn't a very easy winter.
- 6 Your driving test is next Tuesday, so are we having / shall we have a two-hour lesson on Monday?
- 7 My parents have just given me 10,000 euros but I 'm not going to / don't spend it all straightaway!
- 8 'Have you checked my report yet?' 'No, but I'm staying / going to stay at home tonight. I'll look at it then.'
- 9 The takeover is going ahead, I'm afraid, so we will be / are making some redundancies in the New Year.
- 10 The Mayor of Paris is to / about to attend the ceremony tomorrow before leaving the city.
- 11 These pills will not be / are not to be taken without food.
- 12 The plane is to take off / takes off at 10.45, so we'd better check in by 8.45.
- 13 The builder won't finish the work until you will pay / have paid him what you owe him.
- 14 Mr Fellows plays / will be playing golf tomorrow afternoon as usual, so you can catch him on the course.
- 15 The timetable is due to be / on the point of being published on 1st May.
- 16 He's very likely / unlikely to accept the position as we can't match his current salary.
- 17 The society hopes to / envisages expand its membership by twenty percent in the next year.
- 18 'I'm sorry I spilt tea on your dress.' 'Don't worry. I would / was going to take it to the cleaners' anyway.'
- 19 Look, I didn't put the rubbish out this morning because I thought you would / were going to do it!
- 20 The new department store was to open / have opened on 2nd January, but the explosion prevented this.