

1. Write the animals in the correct place.

Snail	Spider	Whale	Horse	Worm
Butterfly	Chicken	fly	Snake	Fish

Vertebrate

Invertebrate

2. Complete the table with the following words.

Fish	Two	Four	Dove	Gills	Lion
Reptiles	Crocodile	lungs	on land	in water

Group	How they breathe	Number of legs	Where they live	Example
Mammals	lungs	four
Birds	lungs		On the land, in the air
		zero		Salmon
	lungs		On land	Lizard
Amphibians		Four (adults)	On the land, in water

3. Complete the following text with the following word.

Oysters Invertebrate Molluscs worms three Arthropods

Most animal on Earth are _____. There are many different groups of invertebrates.

There are _____ groups of invertebrates: Worms, molluscs and Arthropods.

_____ have a long, soft body. Some live on land and others live in water. For example, leeches and flatworms.

The _____ have a soft, muscular body. Mussels and _____ are molluscs.

The biggest group of invertebrates are the _____.