

Read and answer the questions

Jalur Gemilang The National Flag of Malaysia

History of Malaysia's National Flag

- On 29 November 1949, a national-level competition was held to choose a design of the flag for the new government.
- Mr. Mohamad Bin Hamzah's creation (architect from the government of Johor) was chosen as the winner.
- After several amendments, King George VI approved the flag design on 19 May 1950.
- On 26 May 1950, the flag of the Federation of Malaya was flown for the first time in the compound of the Sultan of Selangor's Palace with the attendance of DYMM Malay Rulers and Officers of King George VI.

1. When was a national-level competition was held?

2. Why did they organize a national-level competition?

3. Who was the winner in the competition?

4. What did they do to get King George VI approval?

5. Where did the National Flag was flown for the first time?

6. Who attended the ceremony?

7. How can you show your love to Malaysia's National Flag?

8. Malaysia's National Flag is also called as....
