Comparisons (1 and 2)

1 Look at the dialogue on page 34 and write the comparative form of these adjectives.

They're both [1]..... (cool) and [2]..... (interesting) than you are.

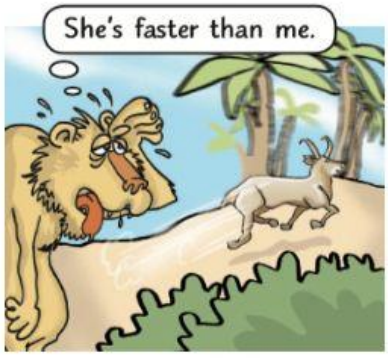

His brother Glen's [3]..... (good-) looking.

a To compare two things, we use adjective + er [+ than]
(old) She's older than me.
(cool) He's cooler than his brother.
(hot) Today is hotter than yesterday.

b Be careful with spelling!
curly → curlier
hot → hotter

c 'good' and 'bad' are irregular:
(good) His English is better than mine.
(bad) The weather today is worse than yesterday.

d With longer adjectives of three or more syllables, we use the word, more:
(dangerous) This game is more dangerous than that one.

2 Write the comparative form of these adjectives.

1 pretty ..... 5 lucky .....
2 good ..... 6 funny .....
3 bad ..... 7 hot .....
4 tall ..... 8 young .....

3 Write comparative sentences.

1 July / hot / October
.....
2 My hair / short / her hair
.....
3 Meg / pretty / Sarah
.....
4 Rob / old / Tom
.....
5 My new smartphone / good / my old phone.
.....
6 He / tall / father now!
.....

4 Write the comparative form of these adjectives.

1 difficult .....
2 dangerous .....
3 small .....
4 exciting .....
5 young .....

5 Reorder the words to make sentences.

1 intelligent / more / than / Sam / is / me / .
.....
2 my / expensive / car / more / is / than / His / car / .
.....
3 is / Paris / Moscow / romantic / than / more / .
.....
4 interesting / than / brother / more / Bob / his / is / .
.....
5 difficult / the last one / more / This question / than / is / .
.....
6 more / than / This film / exciting / is / his last one / .
.....