ADVICE

Read the power point presentation carefully. Then, do the activities below.

1.Fill in the gaps with ought to/ ought not to and one of the verbs in the box

find	ignore	make	seize	take	undersell

Succesful businesswoman Julie Deane of Cambridge Satchels has some words of advice for young entrepeneurs:

a) You any opportunities that come your way.
b) You risks.
c) You the most of the opportunities to market online.
d) You your customers. Get to know your audience really well so that you can meet their needs.
e) You your product.
f) You your partners who can work with you to enhance your brand.

2. Read the situations and choose the correct option

a) It looks as if it might rain. We an umbrella.

b) That´s a really popular restaurant. We a table if we want to go tonight

c) You leave know if you want to be on time to your lesson.

d) She´s not happy with what you did last night. You it again.

e) The exam is not until next week, but if you want to do well you for the last minute.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Put in had better where suitable. If had better is not suitable, use should.

a) I have an appointment in 10 minutes. I go now or I´ll be late.

b) It´s a great film. You watch it. You´ll love it!

c) I get up early tomorrow. I´ve got a lot to do.

d) I´m glad you came to see us. You come more often.

e) She´ll be upset if we don´t invite her to our wedding, so we invite her.

f) These biscuits are delicious. You try one.

g) I think everybody learn a foreign language.

LIVEWORKSHEETS