

SEA PARK

You will hear someone welcoming a group of visitors to Ocean Life sea park. Choose A B or C.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 This group of visitors. | A. have just arrived at the sea park
B. have finished their visit.
C. have already seen some of "Ocean Life". |
| 2. Visitors are encouraged to | A. see only the sea life they like best.
B. take plenty of time to see everything.
C. come back to the park for another visit. |
| 3. Organizers at the center believe that | A. some sea life is more interesting than others
B. sharks should never be kept in a sea park.
C. certain sea life should remain in the sea. |
| 4. What does the speaker say about learning at the sea park? | A. It's less important than being entertained.
B. You can both learn and have fun.
C. There is written information everywhere. |
| 5. How do the organizers make school visits earlier? | A. They speak to teachers after the visits.
B. They organize special school days.
C. They make suggestions about what to study. |
| 6. The organizers also help sea life by | A. caring for hurt animals until they are well.
B. looking after injured animals from all over the world.
C. sending rescuers to look for animals in Europe. |

