

The bar chart below shows the amount of money invested in each categories from five organizations.

The bar chart illustrates five organizations money into four different of the company, machinery, building, staff training, and research.

invested

including

aspects

how

Overall, organization B invested the money in all sectors of its , while invested the least. Another feature is that the of money that organization A into four were significantly .

amounts
business

purposes
organization D

unequal
most

channeled
striking

Looking at organization B, accounted for the largest part of the in organization B (1.7 billion euros), while the for staff and research were lower, at 1.5 and 1.6 million euros . Machinery the least investment from this organization (1.3 billion euros). Meanwhile, staff training received the most from organization A with 1 billion euros, twice as much as spending on building. Machinery and research were given the lowest concern, with 800 million euros .

building
fund

apiece
respectively

figures
slightly

budget
approximately

received
roughly

Regarding the remaining _____, both organizations D and E spent the most on _____, with 500 million euros for each organization, _____ the funding for _____ was the lowest, at about 300 and 350 million euros respectively. _____, the _____ of investment of organization C _____ to machinery and research (700 million euros each), whereas the figures for building and training was lower, at only 500 million for the _____ and 400 million for the _____.

organizations

former

majority

latter

However

employee

while

building

research

went