Finish the sentences.

Play these games first! learningapps.org

1) The person who writes a book is the _____.
2) The name of a book or story or article is the _____.
3) The problem in a story is called the _____.
4) The way a story makes you feel is the _____.
5) The meaning of a word is the word's _____.
6) A picture that shows what some words say is an _____.
7) The most exciting part of a story is the _____.
8) What happens in a story is called the _____.
9) What you are talking or reading about is the _____.
10) Someone in a story is called a _____.
11) When you say what you think will happen in the future you _____.
12) Making an idea stronger or helping to prove it is _____.
13) Another way of saying "most important" is _____.
14) A story that is not true is _____.
15) If you make something happen, you _____ it.
16) When you put things in order, you _____ them.
17) You give a little more information in a _____.
18) To tell how two things are the same is to _____.
19) Writing about true things is _____.
20) If it is about your body or things you can touch, it's _____.
21) We call the time right now the _____.
22) Where and when a story happens is the _____.
23) A group of people who live together and follow the same rules is a _____.
24) The time before today we call the _____.
25) The way the problem in a story is solved is the _____.
26) What happens because something else happened first is the _____.
27) When you tell about something, you _____ it.
28) To use only a few words to retell something is to _____.
29) When you repeat a person's exact words, you _____.
30) A part of your body or personality that does not usually change is a _____.
31) To tell how two things are different is to _____.
32) Anything that is not made by people is part of _____.
33) Something that is going down is _____.
34) Something that is going up is _____.
35) We call the time after today the _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS