THE SEVEN NATURAL WONDERS OF THE WORLD

PULSE 2 p.42

This canyon in the middle of a desert is nearly 2km deep! You can go rafting down the Colorado River at the bottom of the valley.

In this Pacific Ocean, near the coast of Queensland, this coral reef has over 1500 different kinds of fish!

The world's biggest forest is full of plants and animals, which are disappearing as people cut trees down.

This is a lake of salty water which you can float in. On the beach, there is a special kind of mud which people put on their bodies.

At Niagara there are three different waterfalls. About 5 million litres of water go through them every second!

This mountain, which is flat on top, has steep cliffs you can climb, and all kinds of wildlife..

Inside this cave on the Greek island of Kastelorizo, the water is a beautiful deep blue.

LIVEWORKSHEETS