Modifying comparisons:

Showing big differences:

Showing small differences:

Showing there is no difference:

slightly; exactly the same as; significantly; just as…as; a great deal; really; nearly as…as; not anything like as….as; a little; far more; much less; marginally; not nearly as…as; a lot; a little bit; even; far; completely; totally;

Use modifying comparisons and complete the sentences:

Showing there is no difference:

1. A new phone can be _____ a new computer these days (expensive).
2. This place still looks _____ when I was here a few years ago.
3. The latest news is _____yesterday's (striking)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. The interview questions are _____ when I last heard them.

Showing small differences:

1. The number of registrations has been _____ than we expected (low).
2. ABM Bank is _____Lloyds Bank (successful).
3. It took a _____ to finish the project than we planned (long).
4. This gadget is only _____ at high temperatures (reliable).

Showing big differences:

1. There isn't _____ traveling to new places (exciting).
2. Ben was _____ than the other applicant (experienced).
3. The results from the first test were _____ than in the current one (good).
4. Our new service is _____ than the old one (time-consuming)

LIVEWORKSHEETS