

LESSON 10: What Do You Like?

• Theme: People and Culture

DSKP Grammar

Student's Book: Unit 1, p. 12

GRAMMAR HELP

PRESENT SIMPLE		PRESENT CONTINUOUS
1. We use the present simple to talk about habits. 2. We begin questions in the present simple with do or does .		1. We use the present continuous to talk about things that are happening now. 2. We begin questions in the present continuous with am , are or is .
Questions		Short answers (affirmative and negative)
Present simple <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do I/we/you/they dance on the stage? Does he/she/it love fruit? 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Yes, I/we/you/they do. No, I/we/you/they don't. Yes, he/she/it does. No, he/she/it doesn't.

A. Fill in the blanks with the present simple or present continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

- Mr Suresh _____ (not work) on Sundays.
- He _____ (talk) to his friend on the phone.
- Halim's sister _____ (not like) water sports.
- Puan Rokiah _____ (teach) English and Science.
- Kim and her sisters _____ (not go) to the museum.
- Yasmin and her brother _____ (have) lunch at the canteen.

B. Write questions based on the responses given. Use the correct form.

Present simple

- go to bed – 9.30 p.m. – every night

Question: _____

Response: No, I don't.

- rain – often – Kuala Lumpur

Question: _____

Response: Yes, it does.

Present continuous

- cooking dinner – for – her parents

Question: _____

Response: No, she isn't.

- building – sandcastles – at the beach

Question: _____

Response: Yes, they are.