

How to use body language.

Watch and complete the sentences with one or more words.

The way you use your body language can be or

The , the or the topic being discussed can generate variation on the way you use your body language.

Gestures:

when trying to communicate a message, some people at others or objects.

Facial expressions:

People with on their face can be seen as approachable and welcoming.

Eye contact:

Staring all the time may make the other person feel

If you don't make eye contact, you may seem untrustworthy and

You need to make a between them.