MATCH SECTION

The sentences on the left box are part of a story about Grasshopper and the ant. Match the sentences to its generic structure on the right box by drawing a line!

Winter began. The grasshopper felt cold and could not find anything to eat. He went to the Ant's house. The ant gave him food.

ORIENTATION

We might not waste much time just for having fun. However, we have to prepare ourselves for the future.

COMPLICATION

The grasshopper laughed at the ant. The ant said that the grasshopper should gather food too for winter but the grasshopper did not worry about it because he had some to eat.

RESOLUTION

Once upon a time, the grasshopper was playing his guitar while the ant worked hard to gather food.

DRAG AND DROP

Drag the pictures provided and drop it to the appropriate box!

	The Lion laughed, then he lifted up his paw and let the Mouse go.
	This soon awakened the Lion, who placed his huge paw upon the Mouse and opened his big jaws to swallow him.
	Several days later, the lion walked, he stepped into the trap, and the hunters tied him to a tree.
	Once when a Lion was asleep a little Mouse began running up and down upon him.

	Just then the Mouse heard it and soon ran to gnawed away the ropes of the net.
	The Lion roared with the fury and struggled to break away.
	The Lion said: "Dear good Mouse, I was foolish to ridicule you for being small. Finally, the Lion and the Mouse were friends for ever after.
	"Pardon, O King," cried the little Mouse, "forgive me this time, I will repay your kindness someday."
