Make out like it never happened and that we were nothing

But you didn't have to cut me off

Now you're just somebody that I used to know1

And I don't even need your love

Now you're just somebody that I used to know2

Reading into every word you say

I guess that I don't need that though

No you didn't have to stoop so low

But felt so lonely in your company

Have your friends collect your records and then change your number

And I wouldn't catch you hung up on somebody that you used to know

But you treat me like a stranger and that feels so rough

Like resignation to the end, always the end

Well you said that we would still be friends

Like when you said you felt so happy you could die

But had me believing it was always something that I'd done

Somebody That I Used To Know

Now and then I think of when we were together

I told myself that you were right for me

But that was love and it's an ache I still remember

You can get addicted to a certain kind of sadness

So when we found that we could not make sense

But I'll admit that I was glad that it was over

Make out like it never happened and that we were nothing

Now and then I think of all the times you screwed me over

But I don't wanna live that way
You said that you could let it go
