

LESSON 102: Let's Experiment!

• Theme: Science and Technology

DSKP Grammar

Student's Book: Unit 5, p. 54

GRAMMAR HELP

WILL/WON'T: AFFIRMATIVE AND NEGATIVE

1. We use will and won't to make predictions about the future.
2. In affirmative sentences, will is contracted to 'll.
3. In negative sentences, will not is contracted to won't.

Affirmative sentences	Negative sentences
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • They'll return the book to me. • Emily will bake the cakes. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • They won't return the book to me. • Emily won't bake the cakes.

WILL/WON'T: QUESTIONS AND SHORT ANSWERS

1. We write short answers to questions that begin with will in the following ways:

Question example	Short answer (Affirmative)	Short answer (Negative)
• Will I join the hockey team?	• Yes, I will .	• No, I won't .

A. Change the affirmative sentences below to negative sentences. Rewrite.

1 I'll help you mow the lawn.
I won't help you mow the lawn.

2 Husna will carry the bags herself.

3 He'll scold you if he sees you.

4 It'll fly to its nest.

5 The car will turn to the right.

B. Write your own short answers to the following questions.

1 Will robots replace humans in the future?

2 Will we be able to go to the concert tonight?

3 Will Rushdi be late for his doctor's appointment again?

4 Will she have enough money to buy a pair of binoculars?