There is / There are

Meaning: To say that something exists (or doesn't exist)

Affirmative +
There is + singular noun	There is a book on the table
There are + plural noun	There are books on the table
There is + uncountable noun	There is some sugar on the table
Negative -
There isn't + singular noun	There isn't a pen on the chair
There aren't + plural noun	There aren't any pens on the chair

We use there is for singular and there are for plural.

Complete the following:-

1. There _____ one book on the table.
2. Look there _____ Mrs. Jo
3. There _____ six chairs in the classroom.
4. There _____ an orange in my backpack.
5. There _____ a car on the road.
6. There _____ four boys in the ESL class
7. _____ some apples in the fridge.
8. _____ a cat in my garden.
9. _____ some sheep in the field.

Write sentences about things you can find in and around your home! Use there is/there are or there's / there're:-

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS