

ACCESS 4 TEST 3

Student's name: Teacher: Ms/Mr.....	Score: Vocabulary + Grammar: Reading & Everyday English: Writing: Listening:
--	---

PART I: VOCABULARY

I.

A. Complete the sentences with the correct word/phrase.

- advancing • fossil fuels • drought • support • overpopulation • famine

1. Countries that suffer from also have pollution problems because of all the garbage created by so many people.
2. Farmers are hoping the will end this year and there will be enough rain to grow crops again.
3. Some people are questioning if all thetechnology we have now is actually damaging our planet.
4. Large, developed countries need to offer..... to countries that are in need.
5. A(n) occurred after several years of no rain and no crops, and many people starved to death as a result.
6. We must find an alternative tobefore there is nothing left to heat our homes and power our cars.

B. Fill in the blanks with the correct word. There are two extra words you do not need to use.

- | | | | | |
|---------------|-------------|-----------|---------|------------|
| • fertilizers | • features | • roam | • topic | • estimate |
| • pesticides | • resources | • leading | • waste | • adopt |

7. Having abundant natural can help a country provide for its people.
8. Farmers use to help their crops grow more quickly.
9. I don't see why you should buy a dog, when you can a homeless one from the animal shelter.
10. People must do a better job of recycling at home. We produce far too much household.....
11. Starvation is a cause of death in a number of countries around the world.
12. Scientists that many species of plants and animals will be extinct in just a few years.
13. Some animals around the desert for days searching for food and water.
14. One of the unique of the website is that it allows you to see tigers in their natural habitat through a webcam

II. Choose the correct item.

1. Don't you know that it's to download songs from the Net without paying for them? You could pay a huge fine.
A.illegal
B.dishonest
C.overused
2. It is supposed to be a talking robot, but I can't what it is saying!
A.make up
B.make out
C.make for
3. This microscope has the most lens that you can get.
A.artificial
B.fictional
C.powerful
4. Robots can do many tasks for us, but they are a cry from a real human when it comes to certain things.
A.far
B.basic
C.tiny
5. I enjoy IMAX theaters. The combination of and technology is amazing.
A.creativity
B.loyalty
C.inaction
6. A modem is a hardware that allows computer systems to use a telephone line to send information to one another.
A.task
B.procedure
C.device

PART II: GRAMMAR

I. Complete the sentences with must not or don't have to.

1. You touch the exhibits at the science museum.
2. He play around in the lab. He could cause some damage to the equipment.
3. You come to my office; you can send me the report by email.
4. You tell your computer password to anyone.
5. You be a technology expert to be interested in robots.
6. The IMAX theater is a great experience and you do anything but sit and enjoy it!

II. Complete the sentences with could or was able to.

1. My best friend type faster than me when we were at school.
2. Fortunately, John find and get rid of the virus that was slowing down my computer.
3. When his computer stopped working, he repair it by himself.
4. I easily run ten miles in my twenties.

III. Choose the correct item.

1. You ought / should only buy something online if the site is secure.
2. You must / can always wear safety glasses when doing experiments.
3. Dennis had to / must finish his science project last night.
4. Can / May you give me a lift to the History Museum?
5. Do you think that one day every home might / had to have a robot to do all the chores?
6. You must not / don't have to buy that CD from a store. You can download it from the Net.
7. Carlos was able to / might build a radio when he was a child.
8. We could / should go to the new science exhibition at the museum if you want.
9. You don't have to / must not spill any liquid on the keyboard.
10. Should / Might I borrow your lighter for a minute? - Sure, no problem.

IV. Put the verbs in parentheses in the correct form. For some blanks, there can be two acceptable answers.

A.

1. A: ..Have you found the information I asked you for?

B: No, but I promise I (do) it tonight.

2. A: There's so much smog in the city today!

B: I know. It (not/be) easy for people with breathing difficulties.

3. A: Did you take the bins to the recycling center?

B: No, I forgot. I (take) them now.

4. A: Have you finished making your travel arrangements?

B: Yes. I (fly) to New York Tuesday morning.

5. A: Do you have any plans for today?

B: Yes, I (meet) my friends at the Earth Day Festival.

B.

1. This time tomorrow Alex (present) his project on the environment to the whole class.

2. The demonstration (finish)

by the time we get back to the city.

3. Scientists fear that by the time we figure out a solution to global warming, many plants and animals (die).

4. The food supplies (arrive) in Somalia by Thursday.

5. Professor Lewis (announce) the findings of his research at nine o'clock tonight.

V. Complete each of the following sentences using Conditional Sentences Types 1 - 3 in order to make them mean the same as the original sentences.

e.g.g: Peter got bad marks because he didn't prepare his lessons well

~~✗~~ If Peter had prepared his lesson well, he would have had gotten good marks.

1. They don't understand the problem. They won't find a solution

~~✗~~

2. Go right now or you'll be late for the train.

~~✗~~

3. Because you speak English unnaturally, they do not understand you.

~~✗~~

4. We didn't know your phone number, so we could not contact you.
✍
5. Because Simon doesn't live near his mother, he can't visit her often.
✍
6. She didn't hurry, so she missed the train.
✍
7. John is fat because he eats so many chips.
✍
8. Bill never does anything if you don't tell him what to do.
✍ Unless.....
9. They don't have enough time so they cannot do me a favour.
✍
10. I must leave now, or I'll miss the flight.
✍