

GRAMMAR

Complete with the Present Perfect Simple or the Past Simple of the verbs in brackets

Nicole: So, how _____ (to be) your trip to Egypt? You really are a world traveler, aren't you?

Tony: It was really great. The pyramids and temples _____ (to be) incredible, and I even _____ (to ride) a camel through the desert.

Nicole: You _____ (to ride) a camel? Wow, that is so cool! I want to ride a horse, but I'm not so sure about a camel. _____ you ever _____ (to ride) a horse?

Tony: A horse? Yes, I have. I _____ (to ride) a horse twice in my life.

Nicole: Oh, wow. _____ you _____ (to like) it?

Tony: Yes, I did. It was a really great experience. Horses are so beautiful and powerful. It's my favorite animal.

Nicole: Yes, they are amazing animals. So, how many countries _____ you _____ (to travel) to?

Tony: I _____ (to be) to 32 countries so far and counting.

Nicole: Thirty-two countries? Wow! That's so cool! What was your favorite country?

Tony: That's a difficult question, but I would have to say Thailand. Thailand _____ (to be) really spectacular. The food, culture, and people are really unbelievable. I _____ (to be) there three times.

Nicole: Three times? Wow! You're so lucky. _____ you _____ (to eat) any interesting or strange dishes?

Tony: Strange dishes? Hmm... Actually, yes, I _____ (to try) some pretty interesting dishes. I tried some fried insects, and dancing shrimp.

Nicole: Fried insects? Eww. That doesn't sound good at all. Dancing shrimp? You mean they _____ (to be) still alive?

Tony: Yes, they _____ (to be)! Actually, they were both quite tasty. I was really surprised! You know what they say... "when in Rome".

Nicole: No thank you! I would never eat fried insects or anything that is still alive

