- A: OK, let's have a quick look at the Gantt chart. What's our [redacted]?
- B: Well, the systems [redacted] are finishing their tasks at the end of [redacted] 3, so your team is [redacted] start coding in week 4. Then the second milestone, being ready for alpha testing, is [redacted] in week 9.
- A: So ... we have five weeks to do the coding?
- B: Yep, that's right. And then the alpha testing is due to finish at the end of week [redacted] so you're scheduled to [redacted] with the [redacted] from that in week 11.
- A: And we have two weeks to do that ... and then, according to the chart, we start again in week 16, after the alpha testing. Hmm ... we only have a week after the beta testing? That doesn't sound very long!
- B: You're right. That's rather short. I think there's a [redacted] the beta testing should only last two weeks, not three. So you should have two weeks to deal with the feedback. I'll [redacted] the chart. Two weeks for beta testing and two weeks after that for you to do the [redacted]
- A: OK. That's better. Thanks very much!
- B: That's OK. We should still be able to finish the [redacted] before week 18.
