

SOCIAL SCIENCE UNIT 6: PALEOLITHIC AGE, NEOLITHIC AGE AND METAL AGES

NAME: _____

GROUP: _____

1. WRITE TRUE OR FALSE.

- People in the Paleolithic Age lived in caves, huts or in the open.
- People in the Paleolithic Age were organized in tribes.
- People in the Paleolithic Age made tools with metal.
- The main activities in the Paleolithic Age were: grow crops and keep animals.
- People in the Paleolithic Age were nomads.

2. COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE WORDS BELOW.

fields - keep animals - plants - sedentary - villages

- The Neolithic Age began when people started to _____.
- People in the Neolithic Age discovered that _____ grow from seeds so they started to grow crops in _____.
- To stay close to their farms they built _____ and they become _____.

3. CHOOSE PALEOLITHIC OR NEOLITHIC.

People created tools to help them farming.

People created tools to hunt, fish or collect.

People made cloth from wool..

People made very simple tools with bones and stones.

People learned to make pottery from clay.

4. MATCH TO MAKE TRUE SENTENCES ABOUT THE METAL AGES.

... the wheel, sail and plough.	... then bronze and finally iron.	... ornaments and tools.
... were soldiers and traders.	... where metal were found.	... to protect the towns
... to make objects out of metal.

- The Metal Ages started when people learned...
- People started to use copper, ...
- People made weapons, ...
- People lived in towns close to places...
- People built walls...
- The main activities during this period...
- The most important inventions during this period were...