

dictatorship – political – democracy – constitution – Alfonso XIII – Republic – education –
Juan Carlos I – presidents – Felipe VI – military – Francisco Franco – Civil War

At the beginning of the 20th century, [] was King of Spain. During his reign, there were many social and [] conflicts.

In 1923, General Primo de Rivera established a [] dictatorship and abolished the [].

In 1931, the Second Spanish [] was proclaimed. Important land, [] and labour reforms took place.

In 1936, General [] led a coup against the government, and the Spanish [] started.

Franco established a [] that lasted from 1939 to 1975.

After Franco's death, [] was proclaimed King of Spain and a [] was established.

Since then, different [] have governed Spain. In 2014, Juan Carlos I abdicated in favour of his son, [].