

GO and GET

Remember:

- Go is used to talk about a whole movement.
- Get is mainly used to talk about the end of a movement – the arrival. Get can also mean 'make somebody / something do something'.

Practice: Complete the following sentences using get or go.

1. I to work by car and Susie by train.
 - go, go
 - go, goes
 - goes, goes
2. Let's see who will there first?
 - get
 - go
3. I to see him yesterday.
 - went
 - got
 - gone
4. Although the train was late, I managed to to the meeting in time.
 - go
 - get
5. It wasn't easy to through the crowd.
 - get
 - got
6. Could you tell me how to to the post office?
 - get
 - go
7. We had better going – it's late.
 - get
 - go
8. It is late.
 - going
 - getting
9. When do I to see your new baby?
 - get
 - go
10. I couldn't the car to start.
 - get
 - go