

Match the beginning and ending of the sentences, write down synonyms for underlined phrases in sentences.

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1. When somebody lies his blood moves quickly _____                               | a) study them.                        |
| 2. If you see your friend rubbing her fingernails against her nose it means _____ | b) to be a successful businessman.           |
| 3. I want to make you believe _____  | c) body language.                            |
| 4. Body language is likely to be correct _____                                    | d) an unconscious physical response . |
| 5. Body language seems familiar with the simplest ideas _____                     | e) than his words.                           |
| 6. You can easily understand the meaning _____                                    | f) of it.                                    |
| 7. His body language much more believable _____                                   | g) to a lot of people.                       |
| 8. This movement of his feet is _____  | h) than words to know the truth.             |
| 9. They have focused on learning _____  | i) this is true.                             |
| 10. Reading body language is the deciding factor _____                            | j) she is not honest.                        |
| 11. They suppose he is going to _____  | k) to his ears and they are blushing.        |