Thursday February 28th

I know that I'm becoming a) obsessed....., but I can't stop thinking about Viktor. He was away in London for the b)..... and winter fashion show so I stayed late at the office. I wanted to look at his computer to find out more about him. Of course, I didn't find anything because he's always very careful. After that, I used my computer to look on the c)..... . A lot of news stories came up on the d)..... about Viktor and his time at Ballantine's. But nobody knows how old he really is - and that's very strange! Then I hurried to Viktor's e)..... Jim, the f)....., went up with me in the g)..... . I lied about forgetting my key and Jim opened the door. I looked inside Viktor's h)....., which was full of black clothes, and then I looked in the i)..... . It was nearly empty. After that, everything went wrong. Viktor came back and told me that he's going to marry Angie. I was j)..... with him, but he just laughed. I called Angie and she says that it's true! She was looking at k)..... dresses and she wanted my help. I can't believe it! There's something very bad about Viktor. He's l)....., but nobody believes me. What can I do?
