

Match the words with the correct meaning.

Significance	Humans need security, comfort, order, protection and control.
Love and connection	There are times where change is important. New and different experiences help us to expand and develop our personalities.
Contribution	Humans need to feel acceptance and respect. They make us want to be useful members of society.
Variety	Human touch is essential for babies and young children to develop correctly.
Certainty	To create and maintain connections in the brain, we must always learn new things and practice our skills.
Intellectual growth	Feelings of empathy drive humans to want to help, support, and care for others.