

Match the sentences to the pictures

1. The Southern land was full of gold.
2. The gold fields required a lot of equipment
3. Many picks, plates, and shovels were used
4. People had to dig to find gold
5. Supply and demand of shovels and pics was an impact

Listen and answer the question

How did this man make a fortune?

What happen to his fortune?

Listen one more time and match the beginning of the sentence with the possible ending.

- a Sam Brannan became ☐
- b He was running ☐
- c He quickly recognized ☐
- d He bought up ☐
- e He ran ☐
- f He cornered ☐
- g He really understood ☐
- h He made ☐
- i In the end he lost ☐
- j He died ☐

- 1 all the picks, shovels, and pans.
- 2 the laws of supply and demand.
- 3 a successful businessman in California.
- 4 the market for picks, shovels, and pans.
- 5 his fortune and his health.
- 6 the only store near the gold fields.
- 7 an unnoticed death.
- 8 a gap in the market.
- 9 $36,000 in just nine weeks.
- 10 up and down the streets shouting "Gold, gold, ..."

Listen one more time and complete the sentences with the correct verb: take , have, make.

- a Many _____ the risk of the dangerous cross country trip ...
- b The adventurers came to California to _____ a brighter future for themselves.
- c ... they _____ hope of finding fortune and riches.

COLLOCATIONS WITH

There are no rules on how these collocations are formed, they simply 'sound right' to the native speaker.

For example:

- You say heavy smoker but you would never say strong smoker.
- Referring to height, we would never say Tom is high (!!!), we say Tom is tall.
- We take a quick shower, not a fast shower.
- We have a heated argument, not a hot argument.

HAVE

TAKE

MAKE

a _____	a fortune a fuss a living a loss a mess money a profit sense a start way
b _____	action advice a deep breath an exam notes office place responsibility a risk sugar
c _____	difficulty dinner a duty fun hope inspiration a moment a right a talk a vision

Complete the sentences with make, have, or take to complete the ideas.

- a I always make a _____ when I cook.
- b I don't understand my dreams. They never make _____ .
- c The president of my country took _____ two years ago.
- d I always have _____ finding somewhere to park near here.
- e I don't take _____ in coffee or tea.
- f In my job, I have a _____ to two weeks' vacation per year.

Follow this blog survey about different personal characteristics and go over the questions with your classmates.

A: How would you make a fortune nowadays?

B: Do you take your friends' advice?

C: Do you have difficulty following orders?

D: Do you make a mess when you cook?

E: Do you like to take risks?

F: How do you like to have fun?

G. Do you...?

H. Have you ever...?

}