Phnom Penh and Siem Reap are two important cities in Cambodia. There are both similarities and differences between these two places.

While Phnom Penh has over 2 million residents, Siem Reap has about 1 million people. Another difference is that Phnom Penh isn't as safe as Siem Reap. For example, there are more cases of pickpocketing, burglary and robbery in Phnom than in Siem Reap. Last, the (2) _____ in Phnom Penh is better than in Siem Reap. In fact, many good universities and schools are mostly located there. Thus, if learners want to go to good schools, Phnom Penh is the (3) _____ choice.

However, Siem Reap and Phnom are also similar in (4) _____. Firstly, both Phnom Penh and Siem Reap have many modern buildings such as shopping centre, hotels and restaurants. In addition, Phnom Penh is also as (5) _____ as Siem Reap. Every year, there are more tourists visit there compares to other places in Cambodia.

In conclusion, there are not only differences but also similarities between Phnom Penh and Siem Reap. In my opinion, Phnom Penh is a better place to live and study.
