Listening & Grammar

1. Listen and put the sentences in order. Write the number of each sentence. You can listen to it as much as you need.

- ☐ Oh, now I understand. She's juggling!
- ☐ Where's Grammar Girl? Can you see her?
- ☐ Er, dancing, I think ...
- ☐ Erm, no, I'm wrong – she isn't dancing.
- ☐ What's she doing?
- ☐ Oh, OK.
- ☐ So what's she doing?
- ☐ But I can see a red ball, a green ball and a yellow ball.
- ☐ Yes, I can. She's in the living room.

2. Listen again. Which picture shows what Grammar Girl is doing?

3. What is she doing?

She is

She is

LIVEWORKSHEETS

She is

She is

We use he and she to talk about third person of the singular.

What is he doing? He is reading a poem. He isn't singing.

¿Qué está haciendo él? Él está leyendo un poema. Él no está cantando.

What is she doing? She is dancing. She isn't doing magic ¿Qué está haciendo ella? Ella está bailando. Ella no está haciendo magia.

4. Now, write in order the following words to make correct sentences.

is / doing / What / she/

_____?

playing / She / the / is / guitar

_____

doing / he / is / What

_____?

magic / He / doing / is

_____

not / She / is / acting

_____

He / drums / playing / is / the / not

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS