

LINK TO PRIOR KNOWLEDGE

Democritus

said that atoms are tiny solid spheres. Atoms of different elements are of different sizes.

John Dalton

discovered that electrons move around the nucleus in specific orbits.

J.J. Thomson

discovered the nucleus and that it had a positive charge.

Ernest Rutherford

discovered the electron

Niels Bohr

said that matter is made up of tiny particles he called "atoms" which means they cannot be divided.

