

Demonstrative Adjectives: This/These, That/Those

When we speak about or point at (demonstrate) an object or item, we use this/these, or that/those, depending on the number of objects/items and on how near or far they are. Follow this chart:

	Singular	Plural
Near	This	These
Far	That	Those
 This book	 These books
 That shirt	 Those shirts

Practice:

Highlight to select 'this' or 'these' / 'that' or 'those,' accordingly:

1. Hi, Elsa. (This / These) are my friends Roberto and Fernando.
2. (This/These) is Daniela's boyfriend.
3. (That / Those) are the pants on sale.
4. (That / Those) is a nice hat.
5. She likes (this / these) shoes more.
6. (That / Those) is my son's watch.
7. (That / those) person at the bus stop is my ESOL teacher.
8. Is (that / those) your charger or my charger?
9. (This / These) is my charger.
10. Are (that / those) your brother's socks?

11. Is (that / those) my dinner on the table?
12. (This / These) is a happy family.
13. (That / Those) students are not in my team.
14. Is (This / These) the train to downtown?
15. Where is the parent of (this / these) child?
16. (This / These) tacos are delicious!