

Name:

Tuesday 7th September 2021

Reading Comprehension

Text Features

Non fiction books tell about real people and events. Text features are used in non fiction books to make information easier to understand. Some features include:

Title- the name of the book

Table of Contents- tells the chapters in the book as well as the page numbers.

Glossary- tells the meanings of important words in the book.

Bold Words- shows that the word is an important word in the book.

Photographs- shows what something looks like.

Maps- shows where places are located

Graphs- organize and compare information.

Diagram- shows information in a visual way