REMEMBERING SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

This Week's Focus will be learning about an important time in American History, that began on September 11, 2001 as the world watched.

Terrorists attacked the United States, firefighters and other heroes came to the rescue, and America bonded together to make sure that this would strengthen our resolve to end terrorism forever.

This year marks the 20th Anniversary of that day. The 11th of September has been renamed "Patriot Day" and is celebrated every year with remembering those who serve, rescue, and protect others in our nation.

Objectives:

- Become familiar with the World Trade Center and the Twin Towers before 9/11.
- Examine and evaluate what happened on 9/11 and during its aftermath.
- Articulate why commemorating and remembering 9/11 is important.
- Read, write, and speak with grade level, authentic texts surrounding historical accounts
