|---|---------------------------------------|
| A Famous people do a lot of good for environmental problems. | |
| B Generally, the public isn't very interested in environmental questions. | Speaker 1 <input type="text"/> |
| C The most important thing is for people to know what they are good at. | Speaker 2 <input type="text"/> |
| D Famous people are just interested in getting attention for themselves. | Speaker 3 <input type="text"/> |
| E It's better for famous people to give a good example than to tell other people what to do. | Speaker 4 <input type="text"/> |
| F Famous people don't really spend much time talking about the environment. | |

What about you?

Do you think it's good or bad for famous people to talk about the environment or world problems? Why/Why not?

Write an email to a friend. Tell them about your favourite celebrity. It can be an actor, a singer or a sportsperson. Answer these questions:

- Who is it?
- Why are they famous?
- Do they do anything to help the environment or other people?
- Why do you like them?
