Hi, my name's Clara Belasco. I am but my husband is, so we live in Spain. We met on a foodie vacation in Italy. And yes, we're We're both good cooks, and we love eating out – we love restaurants. How often do we eat in a restaurant? Maybe two or three times a month, but we don't eat at expensive places because we can't it. Then once or twice a year, we do something wonderful – we go to one of the world's top restaurants. We're lucky because we live in Spain, and Spanish food is amazing! Did you know that Spain has some of the world's top restaurants?

Last year, we went to Mugaritz in San Sebastián because we live near there. This restaurant does lots of small We had a kind of chocolate cake there – it was different because it had some cheese in it, but it was very tasty! We also went to a restaurant in London. Its name is Dinner by Heston Blumenthal. Its most famous dish is "meat fruit". And the is wonderful. Then this year, we went to another Spanish restaurant – El Celler de Can Roca, in Girona. We had a fantastic meal, and their grilled were delicious. I still think about them!

Three years ago, we went to the restaurant Noma in Denmark. Noma really is the very best. There was one dish with and grilled vegetables. Very strange, but wonderful!
