Last year, we went to Mugaritz in San Sebastián because we live near there. This restaurant does lots of small . We had a kind of chocolate cake there – it was different because it had some cheese in it, but it was very tasty! We also went to a restaurant in London. Its name is Dinner by Heston Blumenthal. Its most famous dish is "meat fruit". And the roast fish is wonderful. Then this year, we went to Spanish restaurant – El Celler de Can Roca, in Girona. We had a fantastic meal, and their grilled prawns were delicious. I still think about them!

Three years ago, we went to the restaurant Noma in . Noma really is the very best. There was one dish with berries and . Very strange, but wonderful!
