Match the words with the definitions:

To leave	the area in a railway station where you get on and off the train
Platform	in the space that separates two places, people, or things
Straight	a short, funny story that someone tells to make people laugh
Joke (joking)	to think about problems or bad things that might happen
To worry	to go away from a place
First	coming before all others
Between	used to address someone in a friendly way, especially a child or someone you love
Wall	not curved or bent
Dear	a structure made of brick or stone that divides different areas

LIVEWORKSHEETS