

Match the words with the definitions:

To leave the area in a railway station where you get on and off the train

Platform

in the space that separates two places, people, or things

Straight

a short, funny story that someone tells to make people laugh

Joke (joking)

to think about problems or bad things that might happen

To worry

to go away from a place

First

coming before all others

Between

used to address someone in a friendly way, especially a child or someone you love

Wall

not curved or bent

Dear

a structure made of brick or stone that divides different areas