

I. NATIVE PEOPLE: Complete

Indigenous people in our country lived and occupied 90% of the territory. They lived on,and They believed in manySome groups were and others

Today they live in They are fighting for their

II- NATIVE PEOPLE: Complete with the right word

CONTACT LANDS INDEPENDENCE LOST HIGHEST INDIGENOUS RECOGNIZED DISCRIMINATION

The Kolla are an¹ people of Chile, Argentina, and Bolivia. 70,505 Kolla people are living in Argentina today, the second² number of Indigenous Argentines. They came into³ with the Spanish in 1540 and resisted them for 110 years before losing.....⁴ The Kolla continued working for minimal wages even after the Argentina's⁵ Argentina⁶ the Kolla people the indigenous people of the country in 1985 by Law 23303. They regained possession of the Santiago Estate which they⁷ to the Spaniards in 1997. Kolla people suffer from⁸ today

III- SAN JUAN IN THE PAST. Complete these sentences

San Juan used to.....

In the past San Juan was.....

There used to.....

Buildings used to

IV- LIFE PAST AND PRESENT. Complete with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- In the past, people _____ (drive) cars, they _____ (ride) in carriages with horses.
- Long ago, there _____ (be) less people than now.
- Before, children _____ (play) outdoors, now they _____ (use) computers and cell phones.
- In the good old days, mothers _____ (buy) fast food, they _____ (cook) homemade food.

V- CITIES OF THE WORLD: Choose the right word to complete these texts

Venice is a that spreads across 118 small islands in a bay. The islands of Venice are separated by and brought together again by 400 different bridges. This city on water has kept the same look for hundreds of years, which makes it one of the most tourist destinations in the world.

Venice, is one of the world's topdestinations. Before the coronavirus pandemic, around 20 million peoplethis city per year. This caused many such as from cruise ships and Venice is also a veryplace and locals have difficulties findingMany young peopleto other European cities.

Famous for red buses and phone boxes, London, theof the United Kingdom (UK), is the visited city in the world. With a of around 18,000 people 1,000 years ago, London is now home to approximately 12 million people from all the world.

Buckingham Palace

Queen Elizabeth II is probably the most famous reigning in the world, having held the position for more than 55 years. The Queen and her family in the Buckingham Palace, which was in the 19th century. The palace, now a focal . for the British people for both national and mourning, had Queen Victoria as its first resident.

Located in, this grand palace has 775 rooms, and one of theprivate gardens in the world. are welcome to visit some state rooms, which are normallyfor official meetings.