OLYMPIC MASCOTS.

TASK: Match the Mascot to the correct description.

	It lives in Athens in Greece. It is blue, orange, pink and white. It's big, tall and fat. It has the shape of a terracotta doll in the shape of a bell.
	It lives in Sydney, Australia. It is an animal. It is yellow, white and sky-blue. It can't fly but it can walk.
	He lives in Atlanta, United States of America (U.S.A.) He is very happy and very athletic. He is sky-blue, green, yellow, white, black, pink, red and purple. He has got three rings on his tail, two long arms and legs.
	He lives in London, England. He is very happy and very athletic. He is silver, orange, red, yellow, blue and green.
	It lives in Sydney, Australia. It is an animal. It is purple, white, yellow, brown and orange. It can fly and see far distances.
	It lives in Tokyo, Japan. It is blue, sky-blue and blue. It is an animal. It is happy, fast and athletic.

LIVEWORKSHEETS