

Comparison of adjectives and adverbs and modals (can, could, have to, had to)

Choose the correct option:

1. When my dad was a little boy he ... help clean the house
a. has to      b. had to      c. could

2. When I was younger I ... play football so well like I do it now.
a. could      b. couldn't      c. didn't have to

3. Teachers ... plan and correct students' homework every week. Poor them!
a. can      b. has to      d. have to

4. When we were little we ... do so much homework like we do now.
a. hadn't to      b. didn't had to      c. didn't have to

5. My sister ... read three novels a month for school. She loves reading, though
a. has      b. has to      c. had to

6. I can read very ... but she can read ... than me.
a. well – more fluently      b. well – more fluent      c. good – fluently

7. Can you write ... than your teachers?
a. faster      b. more fast      c. more fastly

8. I ... write very ...., but I am not a fluent reader.
a. have to – quickly      b. can – more quickly      c- can – quickly

9. My brother plays hockey ... but I am much .... than him.
a. excellent – gooder      b. excellently – better      c. excellent – well

10. My mom and dad work really ... to give us a very ... life. We love them!
a. hardly - well      b. hard – better      c. hard - good